

Part time Warehouse Labourer

This part time position involves producing our plant media custom mixes, accurately pulling and filling customer orders, managing inventory control and shipping the product. Quality control is important as well as attention to detail in filling customer orders. Our company is committed to producing outstanding quality products and to a high level of customer service and satisfaction. We are a small wholesale horticultural hardgood company that is specialized in a unique product line selling to quality garden centres across Canada and to the US. We are a small team, organized, well executed and enjoy what we do. The position involves physical labour, handling boxes that typically weight 25 lbs and occasionally handling packages that weigh 40 lbs and the ability to mix product. with a shovel on a work bench. Physical fitness and good health are required. There is an interesting range of tasks and the tasks vary on a daily basis. Hours are flexible, typically 10 plus hours per week. More hours are possible. Starting wage is $15 and will be reviewed after three months. Location, south Langley.

Apply: marlenevb@shaw.ca