

KORE Irrigation Technician

KORE is an irrigation and landscape lighting company looking for a motivated service technician to join our service team. Experience is an asset; however we are willing to train the right person. Personality, honesty, courtesy, and perseverance are highly valued and necessary to succeed in this role. If you have a positive attitude, like being outdoors and don't mind getting your hands dirty, send us your resume to disp@kore.ca.
